SURVEY BEING CONDUCTED BY LOCAL PLANNING BOARD

The Bethel Planning Board is seeking the help of citizens of Bethel during the two-week period from Nov. 28 to Dec. 10, when a nine-page opinion survey will be distributed to all households by a group of neighborhood coordinators. The survey queries residents of the town on all facets of town life, from recreation to health care, to industrial development. The Airport Study Committee, the Board of Selectmen, and the Recreation Board cooperated in the effort by submitting questions of particular concern to them. Citizens will be given the opportunity to indicate how satisfied they are with 24 agencies and services of Bethel's town government, and to offer comments and suggestions. The final portion of the survey concerns attitudes toward municipal spending in 14 areas of the town budget.

The purpose of the survey is to assist the Planning Board in renewing and updating Bethel's Comprehensive Plan which dates from 1967. A vital part of the plan is outlining goals and directions for town government, and the response to the survey will be used to do this.

A number of people listed below have volunteered to assist the Planning Board by delivering the surveys in their neighborhoods and collecting them. Anyone who does not wish to have the survey collected may return it to the Town Office in person or by mail. Extra forms are available at the Town Office as well. The members of the Planning Board, George Nickerson, Bob Chabourne, Dick Douglass, Dana Douglass, John Gray, Cathy Newell, and Bob Crockett, may be contacted by anyone with questions. Neighborhood coordinators are: Upper Main and Philbrook Sts., Sue O'Donnell; Chapman St., Art Froburg; Kilborn and Tyler Sts., Wendy Rice; Elm, Summer and High Sts., Jane Barby; Church, Park and Winter Sts., Cathy Newell; Railroad and Mechanic Sts., Metcalf Brown; Broad St. and Mill Hill, Sandy Caton; Upper Paradise St. and Eden Lane, John Gray; West Bethel Village, Mary Ellen Newell; Bridge, Cross Sts., and Riverside Drive, George Nickerson; Mayville, Dana Douglass; Sunday River Rd. and Rt. 2, Dick Douglass; Sunset, Locke Mills and Middle Intervale Rds., Don and Edie Eddy; East Bethel Rd., Stanley Howe; Locke Mills-East Bethel Rd.,

COMMENTS FROM THE TOWN MANAGER'S OFFICE

With Thanksgiving Day this week, the Town Office will be closed both Thursday, Nov. 25, and Friday, Nov. 26. The Town Dump will be closed Thanksgiving Day but will be open normal hours Friday through Sunday.

As a reminder, taxes should be paid by Nov. 30 to avoid interest costs. Interest is at the rate of 1% per month or part thereof on any balance unpaid Nov. 30, retroactive to Oct. 1.

The Town has a diamond tipped marking pen which residents can borrow to mark valuables for ready identification should they be stolen. Interested residents should contact the Town Office. This pen was given to the Town by the Casco Bank.

The Board of Selectmen took action on a variety of items at their regular meeting Monday night, Nov. 22.

Kerry Hucksins of the Boise Cascade Co. met with the Board to discuss the Forest Guidance Report he prepared for the Board regarding the "Town Farm" lot. Following discussion, the Board asked Mr. Hucksins to prepare a five year Forest Land Management Plan for the lot. Board members stress that their main objective was sensible care of the lot and not the generation of income.

A Liquor License Application was presented for the Norseman Inn. Following a hearing, at which no one was present to speak for or against the application, the Board approved and signed the application.

A. L. Labrecque met with the Board to discuss a plan for placing his parcel of land on the Northwest Bethel Road under the Tree Growth Program.

Upon the recommendation of the Town Manager, the Board voted to place the maintenance of the Town Office Vault door under a service contract in 1977.

After lengthy discussion about the purchase of a new light and continued on Page Five

Thanksgiving

... A Time For Us To Count Our Blessings

We have much to be thankful for in this great land of ours.

For we live in a nation of abundance and opportunity, health and prosperity. Where freedom is our birthright... and brotherhood our life spirit.

This spirit of brotherhood is one that our forefathers exemplified on the first Thanksgiving. And from it we have established a lasting sense of loyalty, compassion and respect for one another. For this, we are truly fortunate,

Let's take this holiday as a time to reflect on all that we have to treasure. And celebrate Thanksgiving in the true tradition of peace, unity and love.

VISIT OF BLOODMOBILE TERMED A SUCCESS

A very successful Red Cross Blood Drawing Clinic was held in Bethel on Monday, Nov. 22. The Bloodmobile Unit was set up at Gould's Bingham Gymnasium, and with the help of many volunteers from Bethel and surrounding communities, received a total of 110 pints of blood. Several other donors were eliminated through the careful Red Cross screening designed to protect both the donor and the recipient.

Thanks is expressed to Gould Academy for the use of their facilities, to Telstar Regional High School for lending their typewriters and to every individual and organization who participated; blood donors, volunteer workers, cooks, and especially those who gave the specific type of blood which was so urgently needed for surgery at Maine Medical Center on Tuesday.

Greenwood City—

—Mrs. Collette Morgan, Corres.—

The blue hills dream in smoky haze. A smile of gratitude spreads across the earth. Hither and yon a rabbit scurries at a fast pace preparing his winter home. Pale shadows creep ghostlike upon the mountains. Each tree gives back to earth its leaves to carpet the waiting ground again. AND this day, past mid November, a lonely robin hopped on our lawn among the green with a background of pond ice. I wonder, "Did he get his seasons mixed or lose his way?" But the gossip call of an old blue jay, told him not to stay. This is the first one I have seen since one afternoon when a flock came to my lawn in late October. They seemed to drop from the sky one by one until I counted 48. How many more there were I don't know. They stayed for awhile then went on as they had come leaving only their call, "Fear not! Fear not!"

I have watched this week's sunsets on the canvas of the sky, painted in scarlet, gold, violet, and orange; not the spreading panoramas, as in midsummer, when its colors reach far to the horizons but smaller in size and softer shades. A golden ray of sunset marks the end of day.

The frost silvers vines beneath the moon and stars. How long has it been since you have taken time to notice the stars? There are neon lights, vapor lamps, traffic lights, and store signs. But when did you watch the stars? At night the coolness overlaps the warmth of day, and as night folds down over the countryside there's serenity and peace over all. The sky is sprinkled with stars, the moon has a luminous quality and everything is beautiful. Things which may be unslightly by day flattered in the moon's tender light. These stars and planets and constellations are all companions of the night. At times they swing so low that they seem like a swarm of fireflies.

And this week there's a ring around Thursday which proclaims Thanksgiving Day even as it was proclaimed 300 years ago on Nov. 25th when these words were written into Plymouth Colony records: "It has pleased God in some comfortable measure to bless us in the fruits of the earth."

So it's time for basted turkey and cranberry sauce and to be thankful for many things. I haven't space nor time to list all my blessings in such a lengthy rhyme. So may you be happy with merry laughter to fill your home with joy and play, for it's grand to be with those you love—have a happy Thanksgiving Day.

—Patience Strong

Just a couple of days before the hunting season opened, Ruth and I took our last fall hike into the woods. These woods had been touched by the winter air but we wanted to capture and keep the stillness that prevailed, the beauty of fir boughs, the glistening white splendor we found back there. As we went, the ground took us higher so the earth was cold, and winter spread whiteness for us to behold.

Along the way we stood to look at the crooked creeks that rippled lazy laughter while catching sunbeams from the sky.

We turned left a short distance off the road to see a vision churned to solid white, a waterfall. Standing at the edge we could gaze directly down on all submerged activity below us. The cold had crocheted icy lines along the brook.

As we made our way back to the road, there was a dry brittle crackling beneath our feet.

The goldenrod and the asters were flattened by black frosts and pelting rains.

Back in the road we continued on to the section known as the Ames Place, a spot on the old county road and one we knew well when of school age.

The old farm has gone back to nature and the years. The once-tilled fields are woodlands now, the fields which felt the share of the plow turning the stubble and the sod behind a team is now forest land of pine and spruce, hemlock and oak.

Now and then a gust of wind sent the leaves going where they wished. Some quickly rushed and were then still while others in a joyous mood sailed on laughing and rested in autumn's chill.

My ears caught their faint tapping and fluttering as they lit and rubbed against each other. How small are the sounds of the death of a leaf!

As we neared the car, we spoke of our year. We have walked in woods where and when the rain drops drummed on leaves. We lolled upon banks and watched the puffy clouds. We picked brown-eyed daisies and Queen Anne's lace. We heard cicadas shrill their tunes. We breathed October's sweet incense. Now we hope to see a crystal world soon to sparkle in December.

The autumn died beautifully, with the shivers of quaking aspens, rains, and some perfect days that flowed like warm tears down the face of the season. These many adventures we have enjoyed together.

We started home for the sun would soon be down behind the broken, rough line of the western hills. Soon the sky would be a

STATE POLICE REPORT RISE

IN SERIOUS CRIME DURING
FIRST SIX MONTHS OF 1976

The Maine State Police report serious crime in Maine rose 5.2% and property crimes by 5.3% for the first six months of 1976 over the same 1975 period.

"The Uniform Crime Reporting (UCR) unit, in publishing for the first time comparison figures for a like period of the previous year, in its 'Crime in Maine' Report, also released figures showing assaults on law enforcement officers —already a major concern in Maine—increased by 70.9% over the same 1975 period," said Allan
H. Weeks, Chief of the Maine
State Police.

Assaults on law enforcement officers in Maine are increasing at an "alarming" rate, making the assault rate "among the highest in the nation," Col. Weeks said.

A special task force, appointed by Gov. James B. Longley, to study the problem is due to report their findings—and recommendations—near the end of November, Weeks said.

The 43 page "Crime in Maine" report for January through June 1976, said 1,035 violent crimes were reported as compared to 1,000 violent crimes during the same 1975 period.

Violent crime represents 5.2% of all index (i. e., serious, frequent and measurable) crimes and involves the element of personal confrontation between the perpetrator and victim. This consists of murder, rape, robbery and assaulted assault.

Murder and nonnegligent manslaughter decreased by 11% during the six months of 1976. There were six actual murders compared to 11 during the same 1975 period.
Police cleared three by arrest.

There were 38 actual forcible rape offenses—a decrease by 15.6% from the same 1975 period. Twenty-one rape cases were cleared.

Robbery increased by 11% during the January through June reporting period. There were 182 roberies, compared to 191 for the same 1975 period. The greatest number of robberies occurred on highways (streets, alleys, etc.).
Police cleared 43.2% of the robberies.

There were 799 aggravated assaults (i. e., use of knives, firearms, dangerous weapons, or where hands, fists, or feet cause serious injury during the first six months of 1976—an increase of 36 over last year. Use of fists or feet were used in 61.3% of the aggravated assaults. Police cleared 76.7% of the aggravated assaults by arrest.

Property crimes by burglary, larceny and motor vehicle thefts increased by 9.4% of all reported index crimes. There were 18,769 property crimes reported compared to 17,825 property crimes reported in 1975. Larceny, with an increase of 10.5% over last year, was the offense with the largest gain. Burglary decreased 1.8% during this same period.

According to the UCR "Crime in Maine" Report, the value of property stolen during residential burglary increased 76% over 1975, while the number of offenses increased by 8.7%. Property valued at $5,998,590 was stolen from January through June 1976, and $2, 259,588 of this property was recovered.

Larcenies continued to increase at an "alarming" rate, said Robert E. Wagner, Supervisor of UCR, with an increase of more than 1,000 offenses accounting for an increase in value of more than $100,000—from $1,322,722 to $1,623,938. Police cleared by arrest 17.4% of all larcenies.

The "Crime in Maine" semi-annual report also showed that 932 motor vehicles were stolen during the six month period. The value of motor vehicles stolen was $1, 674,033, while the recovered value of $1,455,010, represented a recovery rate of 77.3%.

Crime on a county by county comparison with the like 1975 period showed 11 counties increased their crime index count while five (Androscoggin, Kennebec, Sagadah-oc, Somerset, and Washington) showed decreases.

In addition to keeping a record of crime reported, local, county, and state law enforcement agencies also submit information to UCR on the persons arrested.

Maine law enforcement officers made 16,103 arrests from January to June 1976. Nearly one-third involved juveniles. Of the adults arrested, 24% were over one-fourth between the ages of 25 to 34.

Arrests involving liquor violations revealed 94% of all arrests involving adults were for driving under the influence of liquor, while 6% were for violations of liquor laws.

Regarding juveniles, 79.8% of all arrests involving juveniles were for violation of liquor laws, while 20.2% were for driving under the influence of liquor.

The "Crime in Maine" semi-annual report revealed that 73.4% of all adult drug arrests involved possession violations, while 26.6% were for sale or manufacturing of drugs.

And, 80.9% of all juvenile drug arrests involved possession violations, while 19.1% were for sale or manufacturing of drugs.

(Editor's Note: The "Crime in Maine" semi-annual report serves to inform the Governor, Legislature, Law Enforcement administrators, and the general public through the news media of the trends in crime throughout the State of Maine. UCR provides a "Crime Clock Average" with the annual "Crime in Maine" report.)

THE ALCOHOLIC SPEAKS TO HIS/HER FAMILY —
"Excerpts from 'What Honors — I am an alcoholic. I need your help."

Don't lecture, blame, or scold me. You wouldn't be angry at me for having T.B. or diabetes.
Alcoholism is a disease too.

Don't pour out my liquor; it's just a waste because I can always find ways of getting more.

Don't let me provoke your anger. If you attack me verbally or physically, you will only confirm my bad opinion of myself. I hate myself enough already.

Don't let your love and anxiety for me lead you into doing what I ought to do for myself.
If you assume my responsibilities, you make my failure to assume them permanent. My sense of guilt will be increased, and you will feel resentful.

Don't accept my promises. I'll promise anything to get off the hook. But the nature of my illness prevents me from keeping promises, even though I mean them at the time.

Don't make empty threats. Once you have made a decision, stick to it.

Don't believe everything I tell you. It may be a lie. Denial of reality is a symptom of my illness. Moreover, I'm likely to lose respect for those I can fool too easily.

Don't let me take advantage of you or exploit you in any way, because I cannot exist for long without you.

Editorial Comment

EFFICIENCY OR FARCE?

For those readers of "The Citizen" who missed the Greenwood City and North Paris items last week a word of explanation is extended. Both of our faithful correspondents in those areas mailed their contributions in time, and thanks to the vagaries of the U. S.
Postal Service it took from Monday to late Thursday morning to traverse the distance between West Paris and Bethel.

Except in the rare instances where the intervention of our U. S.
Senators and Congressmen have been successful, there is no direct connection between individual Post Offices served from sectional centers (in this area—042, Auburn). Any mail between Post Offices first must go to Auburn before it is delivered even to a Post Office in an adjacent town.

In fact, mail picked up in rural areas (Star and/or Rural Routes) in most instances goes to sectional centers before it is delivered in the Post Office where the Star and/or Rural Routes originate.

In years past, by a judicious noting of mail-closing times, it was possible to send a letter and get an answer to it the same day between Post Offices in quite a large geographical area in Oxford County. In this age of efficiency and zip codes and modern technology the powers-that-be say that one day mail delivery is the common sense.

Same day delivery for the Post Offices between West Bethel and Auburn would be efficiency; probably one day service will have to be tolerated — but three days —
THAT'S A FARCE.

Upton
— Mrs. Arlene Goodier, Correspondent —

Rosemary Goodier moved to Colebrook and was shortly admitted to the hospital there. She is now released and at home with her mother, Mae Goodier of Cole-brook.

Giles Viens is among the lucky hunters as he got a deer Monday.
Judy Bennett visited her father and Mrs. Bennett recently. She cut her visit short as her favorite football game was not broadcast on any of the channels Fred gets.

Our countryside is beautiful frosty and white, but it is still bleak and bare below the North.
It was good to get back home from Rumford Monday to the beauty of Upton.

out the dimension of justice.
Don't cover up for me or try in any way to spare me the consequences of my drinking. Don't lie for me, pay my bills, work to meet my obligations. It may avert or reduce the very crisis that would prompt me to seek help. I can continue to deny that I have a problem as long as you provide an automatic escape from the consequences of my drinking.

Above all, do learn all you can about alcoholism and your role in relation to me. Go to open AA meetings, attend Al-anon or Alateen meetings regularly, keep in touch with members—they're the people who can help you see the whole situation clearly.

I love you.

GOD'S MIRACLE BOOK

By Dr. J. Phil Jackson
Community Church,
Rumford Center

The authorship of God's miracle book, the Bible, is wonderful.
In its sixty-six books (a complete library in one volume) we have words written by kings, poets, sages, philosophers, gatherers of sycamore fruit, preachers, exiles, captains, poor men, rich men and fishermen.

It is filled with history, law, ethnology, genealogy, ethics, eloquence, prophecy, medicine, sociology, and philosophy.

This miracle book is supernatural in origin, divine in authorship, human in penmanship, infallible in authority, inexhaustive in its adequacy, a book of diversity in unity, infinite in scope, universal in interest, eternal in duration, personal in application, inspired in totality, inestimable in value, immeasurable in power, unsurpassed in simplicity of expression, immortal in its message, the masterpiece of God.

Christ Himself is the secret of the Bible's unity, strength and beauty. He said: "Search the Scriptures, for in them ye think ye have eternal life: and they are they which testify of Me." (John 5:39).

When the world becomes a cinder and time is swallowed up into eternity, when the sun closes its fiery eyelid and the moon is underneath from its socket and thrown into the trashcan of oblivion GOD'S WORD WILL STILL ENDURE.

May the corporate body of Christ in this alternate society become so saturated with the Word of God and the Spirit of God that they will be ushered in with power.</

North Paris

Eveline Barrett, Corres.

We were very sorry to hear that our long time friend, Verna Swan, Bryant Pond, fell Nov. 11, while she was getting into her car and broke her knee cap. It will be a long winter for her.

Loie O'Hearon drove Mrs. Janet Cohen and Mrs. Phyllis Hyams to Portland Friday where Janet had a doctor's appointment.

Mr. and Mrs. Ellsworth Lawrence will go to Greenwood Thanksgiving to dine with the Norman Millett family.

John Estes will dine with the Herbert Estes family, Norway.

Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Stevens and three sons had an early Thanksgiving with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Herbert Stevens and Betty, Nov. 21.

Lloyd Huntley has a nice shiny station wagon, white with a maroon top.

Thursday about 4 p. m. we saw Jim Ring go by hauling Mildred O'Shea's winter trailer and we saw it in Jim's yard, so I guess he has a new home.

I pinch hit for Doris Lawrence Thursday and made two chicken pies for the church supper at West Paris, as she was working.

Sandra Herick has been at Norway Hospital for an appendix operation.

Mr. and Mrs. Maynard Emery, Mechanic Falls, called on Mr. and Mrs. Ellsworth Lawrence Monday evening, Nov. 8. They brought 10 squash and two pumpkins.

The Emerys will go to Florida soon. Other callers were Sandra, Jeff, and Jim, who had supper Tuesday night, Nov. 9. Root Lawrence went with Charlie Coffin to help find his cow that went wild.

Traffic has been very heavy. Many orange vests and jackets but as yet we haven't seen much game go by.

When the holiday (Nov. 11) came I didn't forget to put the flag out, the wind just stopped me. The flag is 6' x 9 1/2" and when it was half way up and the wind got under it, I felt like I was hanging.

I knew I shouldn't leave it at half mast so I trotted it right back home. If I had gone sailing over Moose Pond people would have thought the devil was after them.

Doris Lawrence, Joe and Eveline Barrett attended the Parade at Locke Mills on Armistice Day but Joe who served as commander for two years in the forties didn't ride in the parade as it was too cold and windy. Maynard Chase, West Paris, also went and he rode in the parade.

Mr. and Mrs. Norman Millett, Maureen, Sherry, Brenda, Stevie, Mr. and Mrs. Dale Coffin, Jeff and Jim, had dinner with Mr. and Mrs. Ellsworth Lawrence, Nov. 14, in honor of Jeff's birthday, which is Nov. 17. He was eight years old.

Our champion insurance collector, Glenn Reed, Portland, was in town the past week. He worked on the holiday also Saturday so to have a day or two hunting. When he got to Bethel he was ready for mince meat pie and also took a quart home with him. What's he need a deer for now?

John Estes was at Dr. Weeks, South Paris, Friday, Nov. 12, also he took his drivers test and passed. He will be 80 years old soon.

Tina O'Hearon, 14, was a lucky hunter, Nov. 11. It dressed 100 pounds.

Mr. and Mrs. Earl Cordwell have gone to Arizona. Their nephew, South Paris, drove them as far as Philadelphia as he went there on a business trip. Every little helps on a long trip.

One of John O'Hearon's big pigs is walking about in the field. It's a wonder a hunter doesn't shoot it. If some one did I might sneak out a pork chop.

Until next week you do the hunting but don't stop a bullet.

MAINE HISTORICAL FILMS
BEING PRODUCED BY UMO

Maine Historical highlights, including the lumberman's role in the development of Maine's forest industry and Arnold's march to Quebec, are being produced in sound filmstrips by the University of Maine at Orono's new History Media Center.

The filmstrips, which are accompanied by a teacher's guide and script, are designed for eighth grade through adult audiences. As an introduction to the series the first production, "Building Maine's Railroads," will be sent free of charge to all schools in Maine with an eighth grade about Dec. 1.

The sound filmstrip packages have been developed from student productions made in a UMO history course, History Media Production, taught by Dr. Stewart Doxy. The first production on Maine's railroads was a project designed when he was a senior by Gordon Sanborn of Hampden Highlands, now a graduate student in electrical engineering.

With the assistance of the UMO Instructional Systems Center and the history department these student-created productions are being developed for use by teachers and other groups. Each filmstrip will have about 50 visuals and will be accompanied by a cassette tape of 10 to 15 minutes in length and a printed script with bibliography.

The packages are being developed for sale so that the course may continue to produce further sound filmstrips of educational value, and it is hoped that future productions can include United States and European history as well as the history of Maine.

The next series, which will be available in February 1977, includes "Maine in the Civil War" and "When Maine Ran Washington."

Set three, available in May, 1977 includes "Forever Wild: Baxter and Baxter State Park" and "The Maine Lumberman, 1900-1920."

which fles the music and words of the lumbermen to tell the story of life in an old-time woods camp.

Other sets, scheduled for release in September, 1977, are "The Arnold March," "The Penobscot Expedition, 1779," and "Colonial Pemaquid," plus three from the following: "Founding the University of Maine" (why land-grant universities were established and how students lived), "Mental Health in Maine," "The Shakers of Sabbathday Lake," "The Maine Granite Industry," "Yankees and Acadians in the St. John Valley," "The Nineteenth Century Maine Homemaker" and "The History of Maine Labor."

The original, unedited productions have been available for use in UMO classrooms and earlier productions for both U. S. and European history are also available from the file of material developed by students in the history media courses.

The current project is directed by Prof. Doty and Dr. Edward Caffarella, director of the Instructional Systems Center, with history department faculty as consultants to insure historical accuracy. A senior history major, Cynthia MacDonald of Bangor, is the editorial assistant.

FRANKLIN GRANGE #124
MET NOV. 15

Franklin Grange met Monday, Nov. 15, when the public was invited to see the Bicentennial pictures taken by Tommy Redman of the parade on the 3rd of July. These pictures are the property of the Chamber of Commerce and were loaned for the program. It is unfortunate more of the townspeople didn't avail themselves of this opportunity to see these excellent pictures. Lunch was served after the meeting.

The next meeting will be Dec. 20 when a Christmas program will be enjoyed. An exchange of gifts will be held at this time.

Federal Paper Pushing

There is one government agency that actually has a mandate to push papers. It is the Commission on Federal Paperwork which has been in operation for a year now in Washington, pushing those quadruplicate forms and confusing reporting sheets right into the garbage can and out of operation in the federal government.

The Paperwork Commission has proved very helpful thus far through its interim reports and recommendations on how to simplify, shorten and eliminate duplication of federal forms. One of the most notable accomplishments is the passage of a new law requiring employers to report employee wages only once a year instead of four times. This law, which passed the Congress with my full support, saves some 24 million pages of federal forms annually. That amounts to a pile of papers several times the height of the Washington Monument.

While it stands to reason that wasteful government operations are costly to the taxpayer, there is also an additional and quite expensive impact on the consumer in the private sector as well. For example, the Paperwork Commission found that:

A major pharmaceutical company testified that the cost of required federal paperwork adds fifty cents to the price of each prescription.

Several hospitals estimate that federal paperwork alone costs them $4 per patient per day. And one nursing home operator testified that costs for collecting Medicare and Medicaid payments came to about $30 per patient per month.

As a result of such astounding findings, the Commission on Federal Paperwork has recommended several cost saving measures such as:

• saving $6 billion per year by combining applications for 41 federal security programs.

• saving $150 million per year by developing a uniform health bill form to be used by government, hospitals, nursing homes and private insurance companies for Medicare and Medicaid payments.

• saving $30 million per year by devising a simpler, less duplicative system for collecting and reporting energy statistics.

The Federal Paperwork Commission must issue its final report to Congress in October, 1977. In the meantime, it will continue sifting through the papers, looking for ways to shorten, simplify or eliminate as many of them as possible. If you have your own comments on complaints about needless paperwork you have an opportunity to tell them to your paperwork problems. Write: Commission on Federal Paperwork, 1111 20th Street, N. W., Washington, D. C. 20582.

I have been particularly concerned about the impact of needless federal paperwork on the small businessman, and self-employed fishermen of Maine. Such individuals are particularly hard hit by the costs, delays and confusion generated by application forms and procedures which could easily be simplified and will continue to press for reforms that will help them and others in Maine reduce their needless federal paperwork burdens.

Mr. and Mrs. Seymour Butts and Tony will entertain Mr. and Mrs. Warren Hastings and children, and Mrs. Maude Danforth for dinner Thursday.

RETIRED TEACHERS MEET IN BETHEL - INSTALL OFFICERS

The Oxford County Retired Teachers Association met on Saturday, Nov. 20 at Telstar Regional High School for a meeting and installation of officers with about 85 present. The regular business meeting was held in the library with Association President Howard Millett of Waterford, presiding.

A luncheon was served in the Telstar Cafeteria, where they were welcomed by S. A. D. 44 Superintendent of Schools, Kenneth Smith, who stressed the differences in the school systems of the past and the present. He pointed out that in the schools which the members had attended as pupils, and in which some of the members had taught, there had been no Adult Education, no Vocational School, and no Special Education.

Mr. Smith also pointed out the differences in discipline faced by the teachers of today and those of the not too distant past, and by the drug and alcohol problem faced by the schools.

At the conclusion of Mr. Smith's talk, Elizabeth Tebbets and Mary Valentine played a piano duet, consisting of three numbers: "Liebestod" by Fritz Kreisler, arranged as a piano duet, "Andante" from the "Sonata in D" by Mozart, and "Embarkment for Cythere" by Francis Poulenc.

The installation of the following officers by Forrest Stowell of Paris concluded the three and a half hour meeting: President, Floribel Haines, Bethel; vice president, Olive Palmer, Fryeburg; treasurer, Mildred McAllister, Norway; secretary, Stella Edwards, Otisfield; and corresponding secretary, Hazel Wheeler, West Bethel.
